Re: United States v. Miller (Corey Webb)
19-cr-245 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

This letter is an application to adjourn the sentencing of Corey Webb, currently scheduled for July 15, 2020, to a date in September 2020. The Court had previously granted two adjournments of the original May 7, 2020, sentencing date. Mr. Webb is at liberty on bail pending sentence. As of now, it appears at best unlikely that an in-person sentencing is possible. Mr. Webb also has a heart condition and his medication dosages for that condition are being monitored by his doctor. His next medical appointment is scheduled for July 25, 2020.

If this request is granted, and should delays in resumption of normal Court operations persist to September, Mr. Webb may well be willing to waive appearance and participate by remote conferencing at that time.

I have conferred with AUSA Courtney Heavey who advises that the government has no objection to this application.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Theodore S. Green
